Work from home - Year 6

Suggested activities to fill your daily timetable

Reading and Writing	Spellings
Over the last week or so, Nunthorpe Academy have sent you several transition activities/challenges for all subjects for children to complete at home. They have asked for the work to be emailed to them by a specific date. Therefore, please spend time completing these this week. If you are not going to be attending Nunthorpe. Please refer to previous weeks' 'Work from Home' sheets for ideas of things to do. Aim to spend 2 hours per day on this.	Spelling Shed and Purple Mash. Practice, practice, practice 😊
	Tables Please continue practising all times tables up to 12 x 12, along with related division facts
SPaG	Handwriting
Please revise any SPaG that you feel that you need to (anything you are still unsure of or would like to practice more).	Please always use your best, joined handwriting when completing your writing.
Home Reading	Summer Reading Challenge
Please also continue to read 4x a week. Lots of you in Y6 enjoy reading Harry Potter. Did you know that JK Rowling is releasing a new book -The Ickabog - chapter-by-chapter, free? Access it here https://www.theickabog.com/	This year's challenge is up and running and is being run entirely online! See the link for details https://summerreadingchallenge.org.uk/about-the-challenge
