Looked After Children Policy

Policy Lead	Jayne Gibson
Date	November 2021
Review date	November 2022

1. Definition

- The term 'looked after' was introduced by the Children Act 1989. This refers to a child who is either accommodated (whereby the local authority provides for the child on an agreed basis with the person who has parental responsibility) or is subject to a care order (whereby a court order grants shared parental responsibility to the local authority in order to protect and promote a child's welfare).
- Children in both instances could be living with foster carers, in a residential unit, in a residential school, with relatives, or even with parents on a part or full time basis.
- The term 'looked after', which is widely used in social services is synonymous with the term "in public care", which has been adopted by the DfES in their publication, 'The Education of Young People in Public Care (2010)'.

2. Legal Framework

Recent legislation and guidance from the Department for Education and Skills (DfES) and the Department of Health (DH) requires schools to have effective policies for supporting and promoting the education of looked after children. In September 2018 the duties were extended to children who have left care through adoption, special guardianship and child arrangement orders. In this policy, the term 'looked after' will also include those children who were previously looked after. The term 'currently looked after' will refer to those children currently under the care of the local authority.

Schools must:

- Ensure access to a balanced and broadly based education for all looked after children
- Prioritise recording and improving the academic achievement of all looked after children
- Prioritise a reduction in the number of exclusions and trancies for all looked after children
- Ensure there is a designated teacher to advocate for the rights of looked after children
- Develop systems of communications and protocols
- Promote the attendance of looked after children

3. Rationale

- Schools are key in helping to raise the educational standards and improving the life chances of looked after children.
- Schools play a major part in tackling the causes of social exclusion through careful planning, monitoring and evaluation.
- Schools can also provide a source of continuity and "normality" for children who may have been subject to emotional distress, abuse, and disruption.
- School can be the place where children maintain friendships and a place where they feel safe and can be themselves.
- Raising levels of achievement is a major part of improving the life chances of looked after children and schools play a pivotal role in this.

4. Objectives

The Avenue Primary School will:

- Work alongside social workers to ensure that each currently looked after child has an up to date Personal Education Plan (PEP) in place.
- Provide a climate of acceptance and challenge negative stereotypes.
- Ensure all children who are looked after have the same opportunities to participate fully in the National Curriculum and extra-curricular activities.
- Ensure discretion when addressing a child's current or previous care status and ensure there is sensitivity to the background of children who are looked after, especially surrounding work on family.

- Ensure the designated teacher is provided with regular training, and that they cascade this training to school staff as appropriate.
- Seek to review all school policies regularly in the light of the LEA's Social Inclusion guidance, Special Educational Needs Legislation, and joint Department for Education and Skills / Department of Health guidance on The Education of Children in Public Care.
- Ensure that a clear protocol for sharing of information will be followed both within school and with outside agencies.
- Endeavour to support all looked after children educated at The Avenue Primary School to achieve to their fullest possible potential in all areas.

This will provide information to inform the child's new Personal Education Plan, and ensure that communication systems are established early.
- In the first PEP meeting, The Avenue Primary School will seek clarification from the social worker as to who requires school reports and who may give permission for school trips or other such activities. At this meeting, any means of communication to aid the fluid exchange of information between statutory meetings will be discussed and agreed.
