New Learning | Prior Learning

DECODING & WORD RECOGNITION

Children should be taught to:

- apply their growing knowledge of root words, prefixes and suffixes, both to read aloud and understand the meaning of new words that they meet;
- be fluent at word reading, in order to further develop their comprehension skills and knowledge of vocabulary.

GRAMMAR, STRUCTURE & LAYOUT

Children should be taught to deepen their understanding of texts they read independently through:

- identifying how language, structure and presentation contribute to meaning;
- reading books that are structured in different ways.

GRAMMATICAL FEATURES

- Identify, through reading, how grammar can be adapted to match context, audience and purpose and begin to discuss the effect this has on the text as a whole and on the reader.

For example, varying verb tense:

- ∗ use of progressive tense to build tension in a suspense story;
- ∗ use of perfect tense to achieve a more formal tone;
- ∗ use of present tense in non-narrative to ensure the text remains relevant.

or verb choices:

- ∗ use of modals to suggest possibility or probability;
- ∗ use of imperatives for emphasis.

or sentence structures:

- ∗ Shorter fragments of sentences for emphasis;
- ∗ Use of rhetorical questions to engage reader;
- ∗ Repetitive use of same sentence structure for emphasis;
- ∗ use of passive voice to shift emphasis/achieve formality.

COMPREHENSION

Children should be taught to deepen their understanding of texts they read independently through:

- making accurate and appropriate comparisons within and across books for example, being shown how to compare characters, settings, themes and other aspects of what they have read;
- checking that the text makes sense to them and discussing their understanding;
- asking questions to improve their understanding of the text;
- identifying themes and conventions in a wide range of writing.

Children should be taught how to frame their written responses to a range of comprehension question including finding evidence from different points in the text to include in their answer. The use of PEE (Point; Explain; Evidence) is one example of this.

RETRIEVAL

- Secure skimming and scanning skills to look through longer pieces of text and locate key words/dates/facts/information/ sections.
- Sequence increasing amounts of text e.g. across several pages or a chapter.
- Distinguish between statements of fact and opinion.
- Answer questions related to cause and effect.

SUMMARISING

- Summarising the main events or significant ideas from more than one paragraph both orally and in note-form.

INFERENCE

- Make developed inferences e.g. characters' thoughts and motives, or identify an inferred atmosphere; explain and justify with textual evidence to support reasoning; make predictions which are securely rooted in the text.
- Make more detailed prediction about what might happen from details stated and implied.

VOCABULARY

Children should be taught to deepen their understanding of texts they read independently through:

- identifying, discussing and evaluating the effect of language, including figurative, e.g. impact of a word or phrase on the reader; the suitability of a chosen simile; use of personification;
- expanding their vocabulary through applying growing knowledge of root words, prefixes and suffixes to understand the meaning of new words that they meet;
- identifying different types of language within a text e.g. subject-specific, archaic, vernacular, emotive, persuasive etc. Discussing its use and impact on the text as a whole as well as the reader.

EXPLORE, TEACH, PRACTISE

Children should be taught to expand their vocabulary through:

- exploring links with known words through identifying prefixes, suffixes, synonyms, antonyms and root word meanings;
- exploring the finer meanings of words through looking at words associated with others (not synonyms) to show different connotations depending on context;
- being explicitly taught the meaning and correct pronunciation of new words.

For example,

- ∗ seeing how it is used in context
- ∗ finding clues within the word to define word meaning.
- ∗ finding clues within the context to infer the word meaning
- ∗ discussing examples seen or heard before
- ∗ making connections with word class.
- ∗ using dictionary skills in order to check the meaning.
