Year 6 Spring 1 Project homework – Fallen Fields

|---|---|---|---|
| Find out when poppy wearing began. Explain to a parent or carer all about it and why the poppy was chosen as a symbol of remembrance. | Make a scrap book or fact file to present information about famous figures of the war, including people such as Wilfred Owen, Walter Tull, Edith Cavell and Sergeant Stubby. | Find out about the Woman's Land Army. Who were they and what did they do? Make a fact file or non-chronological report to show the information you find. | Research technology in WW1 and present the information to your family. Perhaps you could use a PowerPoint presentation. |
| Watch footage of the annual Remembrance Day service, held at the Cenotaph in London. Describe how it makes you feel. Write a prayer or reflective poem that could be said at the service. | Design your own war memorial. You could even make it as a 3-D model and consider where you would place it in the local area and why. | Read some war poetry. Think about how these things make you feel and use this to create some artwork showing your emotions. | Investigate differences between life in WW1 Britain and life today. |
| Write a book review of the novel Private Peaceful by Michael Morpurgo. Share your views with others in your family. | Talk to your family and find out if any members of your family lived through WW1 and what happened. | Help a sibling with their homework.Your own idea! Be as creative as you want. | Create a character profile of a soldier in the war. Maybe you could use the name of someone from the local area and imagine what their life may have been like. |

Please complete THREE over the half-term and send them in as soon as they are complete.

While restrictions are in place, the best way to submit your child's homework is to send a photo on Class Dojo. You could also attach a photograph of a model, PowerPoint, Word document etc.

Tasks can be completed in a variety of ways – be as creative as you want!

Please always ensure you have adult permission/supervision if you are using the internet for research.
