Suggested activities

Maths

Formal methods of short and long multiplication:

- Multiply three and four digit numbers by a one digit number using the column method.
- Multiply three and four digit numbers by two digit numbers.
Multiply the ones first then the tens. Use zero as a place holder when multiplying the tens.
- Multiply numbers in different contexts including money.
- You can still work your way through the Y6 Maths Revision Workbooks. Although KS2 SATs have been cancelled, these are still relevant.
- You can still work your way through the Y6 Maths Homework Workbooks.
- Please refer to the website list we sent out within your revision pack to find relevant Maths websites and games.
- Maths Shed can be accessed through your Spelling Shed login.

- Go to www.twinkl.co.uk/offer to access free home learning packs.

English

Feel free to continue to work your way through any of the suggestions and websites for Reading, Writing, Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar that were listed on the Week 1 and Week 2 'Work from Home' Sheets.

Reading

1) Please complete at least one of these reading activities on Literacy Shed Plus

<https://www.literacyshedplus.com/en-gb/browse/free-resources/reading-comprehension-plus/reading-packs-ages-7-11>

2) Vocabulary Spiders

Using an online thesaurus (such as Word Hippo) or a thesaurus at home, find at least five new, interesting words that you did not know before. Create spider graphs to show the words, their meanings, connotations and synonyms (Just like the ones we have done in reading lessons). How would you use the words in sentences? If you do not have internet access or a thesaurus, try looking in one of your reading books and ask an adult to help 😊

Writing

1) Art-Related Writing

Look at the art below. What could you infer from the images? Where is it set? Who are the people? How do they feel? What has happened? What do you think about the art? Could you use your ideas to write a poem, a story, or a diary entry? The art from left to right is Pablo Picasso: The Weeping Woman, Edvard Munch: The Scream and Banksy: Balloon Girl

2) Jane Considine's Super Sentence Stacking Lessons on YouTube

Every day during school closures, Jane (a well-respected, primary school writing consultant) is teaching some brilliant writing workshops, which are suitable for all ages. During the day, she will use video clips to stimulate ideas, demonstrate some brilliant writing techniques and ask children to create their own sentences. She then invites children to submit their sentences – she selects from them to write a 'Nation's Story' each day. The timetable for her sessions is below.

Register for these free sessions below.

The last two-week's sessions are available on Jane's YouTube channel so you can access them at any time - if you would rather do them more quickly than spread them out over the day.

3) Literacy Shed

You could pick one of the film clips on Literacy Shed and use it to inspire some writing of your choice. There are many ideas for the types of writing you could create on the sheets we sent home and on the Week 1 + 2 Work from Home Sheets.

4) If you do not have internet access

You could use some artwork from around the house, a photograph, or an image from a newspaper or book to inspire some writing. Use the Alan Peat sentence types that you have learned throughout KS2 to help. You could also use a TV advert, music video or song. Be as creative as you would like!

Topic

1) What kind of artist are you?

Decide what kind of artist you are. Are you perhaps more like the impressionist artists, the expressionists or the realists? Annotate one of your drawings and explain what you think.

2) Observation drawing

Practise drawing from observation. Choose a range of interesting objects to draw and experiment with patterns, shapes and forms (lines). There are many tutorials online to help with this if you are not sure where to start.

3) Experiment

Research or experiment with a different form of art. Maybe you could explore anime, fashion design, cartoons, sculpture, landscapes, printing, graphics – or something else! The choice is yours.

Arty tasks

There are countless ideas for arty tasks on this website

Gratitude posters

Create a list of everything in life that you have to be grateful for. Then, turn it into a bright and colourful poster. Here are some topics or ideas you can use as a guide:

- Something that someone else did for you that day.
- A person in your life that you appreciate.
- An activity or hobby you are grateful to be able to do.
- A skill or ability you have.
- An item that you love.
- Something that made you laugh.
- What you have learned from something that was hard.

Mandala

Find some Mandala patterns online and recreate, using flowers, everyday items from the home, or natural items from the garden. There are also hundreds of mindfulness mandala colouring patterns online to download and print.
